

Free Red Deer Family History Fair

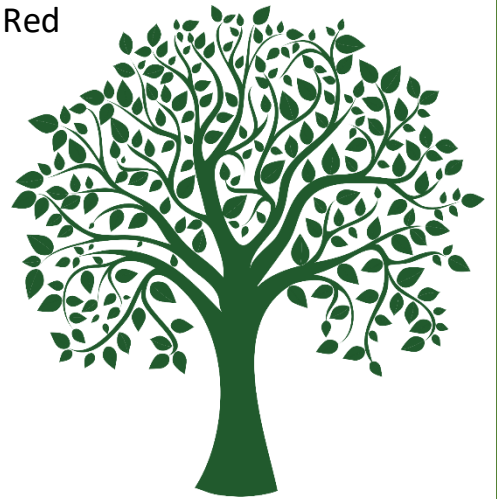

Sponsored by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints Red Deer Stake and the Alberta Genealogical Society – Red Deer Branch

Saturday, April 22, 2023

Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints
3002 47 Ave
Red Deer

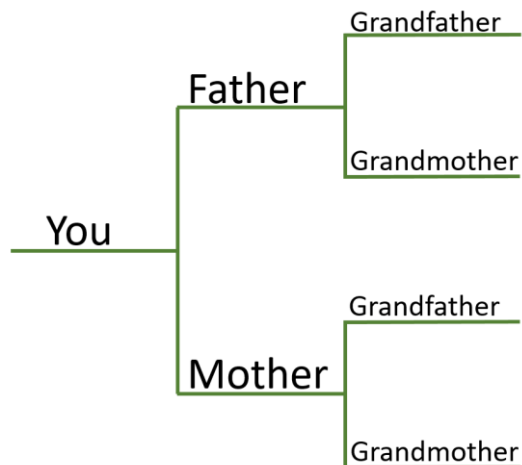

9:00am – 3:30pm

Registration open at 8:15am

Are you interested in learning about your ancestors and your family history?
Want to know what genealogy is all about?

This one day fair has a variety of sessions on different topics and levels of experience. This day is for those who are new to genealogy and family history, as well as experienced. There will be a keynote and four breakout sessions to chose from.

Sessions include

- How to start your family history
- Resources in Red Deer Archives
- Cemetery records
- Writing family history
- FamilySearch website
- DNA
- Using Facebook
- Publishing your family history
- Surname Study
- RootsTech and FamilySearch Centers
- Getting Children Involved & Excited

Water and juice provided

Bring your own lunch or visit a restaurant close by

Please register by April 11.

Information and link to registration at rdfamilyhistoryfair.blogspot.com

For paper registration: Phone Diane at (403) 358-2784

